

University

I have completed my graduation and post graduation from the Faculty of Law of the University of Dhaka. The University of Dhaka was once called as 'the Oxford of the East'. The Faculty of Law is one of the top Faculties of the University. I was a student of 24th Batch of my Faculty. I got a nice Batch and all of my friends and classmates were very nice human being. Most of them are now trying the luck in different places of the world and I believe deep in my heart that some of them will turn into Jewel in the long run. I miss my friends and I wish I would meet them again.

When I admitted in the Department of Law, I got Dr. Shahnaz Huda (Course Teacher: Jurisprudence) Barrister Tofailur Rahman (Course Teacher: Law of Contract), Dr. Sumaiya Khair (Course Teacher: Law of Tort), Dr. Taslima Monsoor (Course Teacher: Muslim Law), Dr. Maimul Ahsan (Course Teacher: Government and Politics) in the First Year. In the second years the Course Teachers were Dr. Shahnaz Huda (Course Teacher: Hindu Law), Ms. Shakila Fahmida Rahman (Course Teacher: Roman Law), Dr. Sumaiya Khair (Course Teacher: Criminology), Dr. Naima Huq (Course Teacher: Law on Equity and Trust), Dr. Nurul Hoque (Course Teacher: Laws on Transfer of Property), Dr. M. Ershadul Bari (Course Teacher: Constitutional Law). The Course Teachers in Third Year were Mr. Dr. Naima Huq (Course Teacher: Penal Code), Dr. Nusrat Ameen, Dr. Farmin Islam, Dr. Azizur Rahman (Registration and Public Demand Recovery). My Course Teachers in Fourth Year were Dr. Mizanur Rahman (Course Teacher: International Law), Dr. Sumaiya Khair (Course Teacher: Law of Evidence), Dr. Borhan Uddin Khan (Code of Civil Procedure), Mr. Shafiqur Rahman (Laws on Specific Relief and Limitation), Mr. Khurshid Alam (Mercantile Law).
